
NES or Flash or both?

(Wednesday, 16 May 2007) - Contributed by Adam (Vergil) - Last Updated ()

Gonna take this week off the FGC. However, since the NES challenge seemed to work functionally I thought I'd keep that up for our future challenges. However, I also noted that the Super Mario challenge was pretty much a contest between Rago and I... so I wondered if that was because people were busy due to finals and move out (which I think was the case) or if people are genuinely not interested in NES challenges. Unless I hear otherwise the next challenge will use nintendo8.com so please make your thoughts heard on the matter!{mos_sb_discuss: 8}
